

Packing List

Clothing

- T-shirts
- Sweater
- Socks
- Rain Gear
- Shorts
- Pants
- Underwear
- Bathing Suit

Essentials

- Sleeping Bag
- Pillow
- Bible
- Pencil and Notepad
- Flashlight
- Running Shoes
- Insect Repellent
- Water Bottle

HERE ARE SOME THINGS YOU SHOULD KNOW:

- Please do not bring personal cell phones. Phone calls can only be made in emergencies at the discretion of the Program Director. Camp is meant to be a break from technology.
- Please do not bring radios, CD players, MP3 players, iPods, "hand-held video game systems",
- Lost & Found items are kept until the 3rd weekend in September (annual Fun Fair) then what is left is given to charity. Thank you.

Dress Code

Thank you for adhering to our dress code. We want to encourage a spirit of modesty towards all of our campers and staff.

- All females must wear a one piece bathing suit. Tankinis are acceptable as long as the midriff is fully covered.
- Clothing with words, pictures, symbols or styling that unduly call attention to the body and/or are not in keeping with the expectations of a Christian community cannot be worn (this includes clothing with skulls and death images, slogans that may be interpreted as 'suggestive', etc).
- Tops should have sleeves that cover the shoulders, although 'tank-tops' may be worn if the strap is as wide, or wider, than two adult finger widths.
- The midriff must be covered during normal activity (including sports, sitting at campfire, meals
- Undergarments must not be visible at any time.
- Shorts & skirts should be longer than the fingertips when arms are extended at the sides of the body
- Skin-tight clothing is not permitted.
- Shirts and adequate footwear are required on ALL campers when not at the pool or on the waterslide